I wish to congratulate the Denair High School students for their accomplishments and many activities this year. So many students have worked hard to improve the school in so many varied areas.

As you read this issue of EL COYOTE, remember this book is your history of friends and school events which you will cherish for years to come.

I wish to congratulate the yearbook staff and advisor for an excellent presentation.

The Coyotes Call

A funny noise is the coyotes call.
He's neither laffin' or cryin'.
It ain't like the gray wolf's
dismal bawl.
Or the squall of the mountain lion.

'Twixt day break and sun up so I've been told,
His howl is a sign of storm.
But he seems to howl when it's freezin' cold
And he howls when the weather is warm.

He likes to serenade the moon
with his high pitched crazy bark.
But he sings purty much the self same tune
When the night is inky dark.

He's a varmint that's nacherly
fond of noise.
What he means in shore hard tellin'
But I figger it's sumpthin' the cuss enjoys.
And that's why he keeps on yellin'.

Bruce Kirkaddon

History of the Name "Coyotes"

In 1928, Denair's basketball team met to choose a name for themselves. Myron Harrison, a graduate of 1926, suggested the name COYOTES. He little knew that some day it would be the name of the High School team and the Annual. He enclosed this poem, along with his letter, stating that it might be used in the Annual.

When the books close, and the last bells ring
And carefree days are lost to mundane things—
When nostalgia strikes, and your memory wanes,
And you remember the faces but not the names—
Pick up your yearbook and leaf it through,
And remember the days so dear to you.

Cyndi - Wow what a year! Its gonna be different next year but I think we can handle it - in fact we can handle about anything. Weve been through a lot this year. With Jack Phillips chasing you, Jackie and I, running all over Denair, Double dating with Mike and Anthony was strange after they said we had something going and wouldnt give them anything. and then there was New Years Eve. What a trip Man! That was sure a different Evening?! Cyndi Mae sure got slapped around a lot. Well now look wholl be on top next year you and me against Dufuck. It sure is gonna be hard next year to think up a line of Bull-shit to feed him without four brains working Well anyway I hope everything works out between you and Mike and Both of you are happy for the rest of you partin
